

WE'RE ON OUR WAY

— A HIKE SONG —

— by —

E. RUSSELL SANBORN

50¢

PUBLISHED FOR THE COMPOSER BY EVANS MUSIC COMPANY
BOSTON — NEW YORK — CHICAGO.

We're On Our Way

Dedicated to the United States Defenders of Liberty.

By E. RUSSELL SANBORN

INTRODUCTION

Martial but moderately

Man - y hearts a - cross the seas are break - ing, And their sad ap - peal to us are Dry your tears while we our boys - are send - ing. Think of all the homes that need de - mak - ing. We can nev - er let it go un - heed - ed When help is fend - ing, And they're wait - ing for our brave pro - tect - ion And strong af - need - ed to lift the yoke of tyr - an - ny.

fect - ion Here in the grand old U. S. A.

Copyright 1918 by C.E. Trussell

CHORUS

Very martial

So we'll sing a song and march a-long with step un-bro-ken. O - - ver seas we'll go We're on our way to save the day for France and Free-dom. We're in the right and so we'll fight till ev - 'ry na-tion sees the light of might by right which ends op - pres-sion, Downs..... Au-toc-racy. With this our aim, no oth-er gain but to make..... the whole world free.

We're on our way. 2

